

Who is Corestream?

Corestream is the leading administrator of voluntary benefits and discounts in the US offering a number of benefits and perks including supplemental health, lifestyle products, and employee discounts.

We are on a mission to protect and enrich employees' lives.

We've helped millions of employees and hundreds of organizations of all sizes access lifestyle benefits that take into account all aspects of wellness. Now, we're excited to offer you the chance to connect your employees with products that help move them forward.

What is the Corestream + Paychex Partnership?

Paychex selected Corestream to bring you a best-in-class program that gives you the opportunity to offer your employees access to valuable benefits, deals, and discounts that can help them live a happier, healthier, and more financially fulfilling life.

Why offer Corestream's service to your employees?

- It takes zero work on your end to offer this high value program. Corestream does the work and you and your employees reap the benefits.
- It gives you a competitive advantage. 76.3% of employees say availability of additional benefits positively affects their decision to accept a job offer.
- It helps reduce employee churn. Enrollment in benefits through Corestream results in 2x employee tenure.*
- It's designed with you in mind. You get an enterprise-level platform optimized for your small business needs.
- It's free. Your employees get access to multiple vendors on our optimized digital platform—at no cost to you.

We are excited to partner with you to protect and enrich the lives of your employees and to help you create a thriving workforce for your business.
